Triumphal Entry into Berlin—Imposing Scenes.

BERLIN, June 16 —The triumphal entry of the army and inauguration of the equestrian statue of King Frederick William III took place to day. The city was crowded with people. The streets were most superbly decorated and in the public square triumphal arches were raised. A platform was erected to accommodate thousands of spectators. The procession was one of the most magnificent of modern times, headed by eagles and standards captured from the French. It marched in the order set forth in the programme, from Templehof field to Colar between two rows of cannon numbering some 2 000, taken during the war. At intervals, along the line, enormous trophies formed of captured arms were erected. After the first division of the victorious column passed Brandenburg gate the Emperor, with the German princes in his train, was received at the portal by a deputation from the municipal governments of Berlin and the principal cities of Germany. Addresses of congratulation and welcome were presented, when the Emperor, at the head of a brilliant cortege, rode down via the triumphal arch which had been constructed in honor of the occasion. The road was strewn with flowers as he advanced by hundreds of young girls dressed in white. The army then entered the gate with the Prussian guards at the head. It was mainly composed of detachments representing every regiment which took part in the war, each bearing regimental colors. The appearance of the men was splendid, and the enthusiasm of the great masses of spectators was unbounded. Some of the regiments, well known to Berliners and others, who particularly distinguished themselves during the campaign received special ovations—the people breaking into the ranks and crowning them with wreaths and overwhelming them with flowers. When the procession concluded its march the Emperor proceeded to unveil the statue of his father Frederick William III. All dignitaries of the Empire victorious Generals and members of the German Parliament assisted at the ceremony, in the presence of the army and a countless multitude of spectators. The veil of the statue was removed amid tremendous cheering firing of cannon and music from military bands. The Emperor, standing at the foot of the statue delivered a speech closing with these words "This monument, which was projected in time of peace, is now become a memorial of one of the most brilliant though bloodiest of modern wars. May the peace so dearly achieved, be a lasting one." The ceremonies closed with conferring honors on victorious commanders. Numerous orders were granted by the Emperor, and hereditary command of the most distinguished regiments given to various Generals and Princes. Among those who received these marks of fame from the hands of the Emperor were Prince George of Saxony and Prince Leopold, General Von Roon was elevated to the rank of Count of the Empire and General Von Moltke made Field Marshal of the Imperial army. To night the entire city is illuminated and rejoicing is at its height.

French Affairs.

VERSAILLES June 16 —In the Assembly to-day a resolution appointing a committee to revise decrees of the government of national defense passed to a second reading

Arago and Simon, during the debate on the resolution, urged a thorough investigation and protested against the calumnies heaped upon that Government

A resolution for a committee to inquire into the cause of the late insurrection in Paris was introduced and was followed by a loud and heated discussion

Hautujens attacked the party of the Left as fosterers of revolutionary societies

Tolan defended the International Society, and denounced Napoleon

Nilan proposed, if investigation was ordered, to appear before the committee with evidence justifying the course of the International society throughout the late troubles. The resolution for a committee was adopted

French Supplementary Elections.

PARIS June 16 —Eighteen newspapers are represented in the self constituted Electoral Committee of Journalists. The programme of the committee is opposed by the Republican organs because the newspapers which support the movement are considered favorable to monarchy

LONDON, June 17 —Insurrectionary placards are posted throughout Paris

The Papal demonstration at Brussels was a complete failure

The Telegraph says the candidates for the French Assembly are making vast efforts and spending large sums of money with a view to election

Another branch of the International Society has issued another manifesto disclaiming any part in the burning of Paris, and affirming that the struggle was against cowardice, and the war against despotism and monopoly. We are unconquered. Our candidates must be advanced Republicans and Malon, Tridon, Sartique, Tolain, Lopact and Dalert are suggested, they being socialists and democrats

Faidherbe is the republican candidate. The Bonapartist candidates watchword is "Free Trade."

WASHINGTON CITY

Naval Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 16 —A dispatch from Admiral Rogers is received at the Navy Department dated Boisee Island, Corea, June 3d sent from Shanghai. Our Minister and the Corean Envoys exchanged professions of amicable intentions. The Coreans made no objections to the survey of their waters. The Monocacy and the Palos and four steam launches under Blake were sent on the 1st of June to examine the table at a point called Difficult Passage on the French chart No 2 750, at a point were navigation is the most perilous. Masked batteries manned by several thousand Coreans, were unmasked and opened a heavy fire without warning to our people. A French ship in advance fought gallantly our vessels bearing up, drove the enemy from their works. The tide swept all the ships past the batteries. They anchored and threw three shells among the retiring enemy. Eight inch shells were evidently not expected. The Monocacy was slightly injured by knocking against a sunken rock. The vessels on returning received no fire. The enemy has been driven from the forts. Our people displayed great gallantry, only two were slightly wounded. The communication received says there is a possibility that we may open negotiations otherwise since the Coreans have met peaceful overtures with unprovoked war, our forces will land and after destroying the forts will take such other measures as the interests of civilization demand

Vallandigham Accidentally Shoots Himself—Fatal Result Probable

CINCINNATI June 16 —A special to the Gazette from Lebanon, says Vallandigham, one of the counsel for the defense of McGeehan, accidentally shot himself to night at Lebanon. He was in the room, in company with Governor McBurney, showing with a pistol how the murdered man might have shot himself, when the pistol was discharged, the ball entering the right side of the abdomen below the ribs. Surgeons are now making an examination. The accident produced intense excitement

A special from Lebanon at 11 o clock says Vallandigham is vomiting which is regarded as an unfavorable sign. One of his physicians said there were indications of internal hemorrhage. Doctors Scoville and Drake ceased the fruitless search for the ball about an hour after the accident

Further Particulars—The Wound Fatal—Vallandigham's Death.

CINCINNATI, June 17 —The Commercial has the following account of the accident to Mr Vallandigham. It appears that no one was present with Mr Vallandigham when the accident occurred but Ex Lieut Governor McBurney, who had been associated with him in the defense of McGeehan. McBurney had expressed some doubt as to the theory that Myers had shot himself, and Mr Vallandigham picked a pistol from the table, saying he would show him in half a second. Two pistols were on the table—one unloaded—and he by mistake took up the loaded one. He put it in his pocket and withdrew it keeping the muzzle next his body. Just as it was leaving his pocket it was discharged, the ball entering, it is said, near the same place Myers was shot. He at once ejaculated "Oh murder," and said he had taken the wrong pistol. While the examination was going on, he watched the surgeons at work with eager eyes, and even assisted them in their search for the ball. He died at 18 minutes to 10 o'clock this forenoon. He went down very rapidly after 3 o'clock, having no pulse scarcely after that hour. Dr Dawson, of Cincinnati arrived at 3 o'clock, but too late to do anything for the dying man. Judge Haynes, his law partner from Dayton, reached Lebanon this forenoon, with other personal friends, who were with him in his last hours. McGeehan, in the prosecution of whose case he lost his life, was taken from jail this forenoon to the bedside, and shed tears as he beheld the dying friend who had appeared during the progress of the trial to summon all his energy and legal ability in his defense. Mr Fillie. made his argument for the State yesterday, and was to have been followed this forenoon by Millikan

PLACERVILLE, June 18 —The Democratic Convention concluded its labors by nominating the following delegative and county ticket and passage of anti subsidy resolution. Senate, J J Lawyer. Assembly, A J Bayley, B B Shivers, L L Ramsay and Sam'l Henning. Bart Richardson, County Clerk, G F Carpenter, District Attorney, A J Howard, Public administrator, Wm J Ablin, County Surveyor. Thos Breeze, Assessor, Chas F Irwin, County Judge, W. H Hill School Superintendent

The Republican primaries were quietly conducted last evening, resulting in a unanimous delegation for Booth. Through the country as far as heard from the party is generally in favor of A A Sargent for Congress

HAYWARD, June 18 —Our community was greatly shocked Saturday evening by the murder of E Lavin shot through the heart with a double barreled shot gun in the hands of Frank a German. Frank has been arrested. It appears the shooting was the result of an old feud. Mr Lavin leaves a wife and several small children

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18—A fire on Market street below second, near the Grand Hotel, to day destroyed Van Corts carriage and trimming shops, McCarty & Wright's blacksmith shop, Craig & Russell's carriage smith shop, and the carriage painting shop of Chas D Henry. Total loss under $10 000

This has been one of the hottest days ever seen in San Francisco, thermometer reaching 85°. No wind, this evening is cloudy and sultry

The police have been hunting all day without success for the drayman who run over and killed Leopold Fried a boy aged five years, corner of Sixth and Brannan Streets last night. He was evidently drunk but had sense enough to know what he had done, and drove off at full speed when he saw the effects of his carelessness

The decision of Judge Sawyer, in the U S Circuit Court, in three cases in which N W Spalding was plaintiff, involving the right of manufacturing and vending movable saw teeth, is supposed to be final, and terminates the most protracted and important right of litigation which we have ever had on this coast. The decision was in favor of the patent on all points.

Notwithstanding the hot weather Eastern visitors are almost without exception booking themselves for the Yosemite, and the travel will be heavy the coming week

The Moses Taylor, from Honolulu, with Australian and New Zealand mails and passengers, is now two days overdue. It is supposed the detention occurred between Auckland and Honolulu, or at Auckland, this being the first round trip of the Nevada between those ports. No anxiety will be felt about her if she does not arrive in a week or even ten days

The Stockton [illegible] reports this terrible accident. On Thursday night, the 15th inst, four children of Mr Wm Leinason, with their uncle undertook to cross a slough from an island to the main land, four miles below Wheatland, when the boat filled with water and capsized. The uncle, whose name we did not learn, succeeded in saving one of the children. The other three a boy aged about ten years, and two girls, aged respectively five and eight years were drowned. Dr H V Johnson, of McMinnville, states that they were on their way at the time to visit their grandfather, Mr Enoch Cooper, who lives near the scene of the disaster. The body of one of the children was found yesterday and the friends and neighbors of the bereaved family were in search of the other two when the boat left Wheatland

Polk county seems to be a great field for camp meetings. Several religious denominations are holding these meetings there.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1871.

Republican Municipal Ticket.

Rarely has a Convention in this city presented for the suffrages of the people a set of candidates for municipal offices so satisfactory in all respects as the ticket nominated at the Republican Convention on Saturday evening. Such a ticket ought to be elected by large majorities. For Mayor we have Philip Wasserman, one of the best known of our merchants, a man of high social and business standing, of practical views and undoubted public spirit, and well acquainted with the condition and wants of the city. He has been tried heretofore in public positions and never found wanting. For Police Judge, the name of O. N. Denny is presented. Mr. Denny is a man of Oregon growth and education, and is well qualified for the position for which he is named. He was for six years County Judge of Wasco, having been first appointed to that office and then re-elected by the people. His experience and knowledge well qualify him for the office of Police Judge, and between him and his opponent, as regards fitness, no one can be at any loss to choose. E. D. [illegible], the candidate for Treasurer, has filled that office for the past two years to the entire satisfaction of the city. Not a word of complaint from any source has been brought against him. John M. Breck, the nominee for Assessor, has, on former occasions, performed the duties of that office in a manner that has given general satisfaction. No man more fit for the peculiar duties of this position could be found. Of the Republican candidates for the Common Council we have heretofore spoken. The ticket on the whole is one that may challenge comparison with any ever before presented, and we believe that the citizens of Portland will to-day declare their preference for it over the one presented by the opposition.

A Difficult Position.

Since the Democratic papers of the State, without an exception so far as we have observed, have taken the organ published in this city to task for its recreancy in subscribing to the doctrines of the "new departure," the said organ has become very reticent on the subject and preaches the new gospel very sparingly. In fact its contemporaries seem to have silenced it very much as the Albany Democrat silenced it on repudiation last year. The truth is they feel that this action of their party if meant in good faith, virtually places them on Republican ground and dispenses with all necessity for continuing their party organization. As a contemporary observes, they have but to vote the Republican ticket and their recently expressed desire concerning the amendments they may be assured, will be carried out to the letter. If their declarations are not meant in good faith—and with the odious record which the Democratic party has made who believes they are?—no condemnation can be too severe for the treacherous attempt to deceive and betray the people.

What a portion of the Democratic party wants, and what it is determined to have if any sacrifice of principle or consistency will obtain it, is power. This faction has no position it would not alter, no principle it would not abjure, no friend it would not betray, if by so doing a way was cleared for its triumphant march to the public treasury. It is poor, wretched and in rags, and its poverty has driven it to desperation. It has thrown down the arms of the rebel and taken up the tools of the burglar. Failing to obtain its ends by force it now proposes to have recourse to fraud. If it cannot succeed on its own platform, it hopes to do so by working on the people unawares with the stolen principles of its opponent. Was ever a more transparent design presented by a political organization for public contempt?

It is because the Democratic journals of Oregon (except the Herald) feel the disgrace of this position that they refuse to accept it or to be driven to it.

L. P. Milligan, a Democratic political leader in Indiana during the war and prominently connected with the treasonable organizations of that party such as the "Knights of the Golden Circle" and "Sons of Liberty," was arrested in 1864 for his treason and kept in custody till after the close of the war. On being released by the clemency of Andy Johnson he brought a suit for $25,000 damages against Gen Hovey the military commander who arrested him. This suit has been pending for several years. A few days ago it was brought to a close by the jury awarding the said Milligan five dollars damages, thinking that sum quite sufficient to requite an aider and abettor of the rebellion for his two years' imprisonment.

The Herald has often told us how bad a man Councilman Hallock is. We have its authority that he is the servant of an oppressive monopoly, that he dabbles in dirty jobs and is in league with those who are planning to plunder the city. Now be it known that if any Democratic Councilmen are chosen at the election to-day they will go into that body as a reinforcement to Mr. Hallock. He will lead them and they will follow as submissively as Mr. [illegible] has done.

Our conjectures were right. Not another word against the water monopoly from the Herald. Up to Thursday that paper denounced the monopoly with great vehemence. But an "arrangement" was effected on that day and the denunciation stopped short. Can it be possible that the Herald has been seen to the tune of $500 again? There are indications that it has. Citizens who oppose the extension of the monopoly with which the Herald has made a truce, should be on their guard.

We want a new system of water supply in this city. It is time Portland was putting off its swaddling clothes and becoming a real city with modern improvements and independence of individuals or monopolies. Voters should remember that these matters may be greatly affected by the way in which they vote to-day.

[illegible] Corbett, we are glad to learn from the Herald as well as from other sources, has the good judgment to decline to be a candidate for Councilman in the Third Ward on the Democratic ticket. Other candidates on that ticket would save themselves some little disappointment by imitating his example.

The Democratic paper at Oregon City continues its complaints about the adoption of a new set of principles by its party. It gives the Ohio resolutions in full, and says they are "enough to sicken any honest Democrat."

The Republican voters of the city have only to come out to the polls to-day and a triumph is certain. Sometimes we lose elections through the inaction of laggards. Let it not be so on this occasion.

The Affray at Roseburg.

The following version of the recent affray at Roseburg between the editors of the Plaindealer and Ensign is from a slip printed in the office of the first named paper.

On last Sunday morning Thomas and Henry Gale, publishers of the Ensign, made an assault upon Mr. Thompson, publisher of this paper, which resulted very seriously to all of them. The difficulty arose from a series of bitter personal articles, which the Ensign had published against Thompson. We learn that a week before Thompson had told Thomas Gale that he would no longer submit to these attacks. The last issue of the Ensign continued these flings, and Thompson meeting Thomas Gale in the postoffice on last Saturday evening spit in his face, whereupon Gale put his hand in his pocket as if to draw a pistol, when Thompson kicked him several times. It appears that Gale had no pistol with him at the time, but ran immediately to the Ensign office, when he and Henry both armed themselves and went in search of Thompson, but they did not meet him. On Sunday morning, about 10½ o'clock, the two Gales, fully armed, came up town to Fink's saloon, which is near the postoffice. About 11 o'clock, Thompson, who had been at his office making up his mail, came down to the Postoffice accompanied by Virgil Conn. Upon opening his box, he saw that the Postmaster, Mr. Stanton, was inside and requested him to open the door, which he did. After going inside and leaving his mail, Thompson and Conn came out and walked north, and as they reached the corner of Flint & Morgan's store, they met the Gales. Henry passed on without speaking, but Thomas, after passing Mr. Conn, said, "You made a cowardly assault upon me." Thompson turned and asked what he alluded to. Thomas replied, "The assault last night." Thompson said, "Well, what of it?" Henry then said, "Why did you not jump on me?" Thompson said, "If you are the one who does that part of the business, I will go after you the next time." Henry then used some abusive epithets, and Thompson told him that he knew they were both armed and intended to attack him, but they were cowards, and he was not afraid of both of them. Henry then struck him a severe blow with a cane on the left side of his face. Thompson kicked and struck at Henry but did not knock him down, and at the same moment Thomas shot at him; the ball, which was from a large bore single barrel cartridge pistol, entered at the corner of his vest pocket on the right side, and passing through a number of letters and tickets, glanced so that it only cut the skin of his side about two inches in length. Thompson then turned and shot Thomas, the ball, which was from the smallest size derringer, entered his breast on the right side near the lower end of the breast bone, and is supposed not to have entered the cavity, but passed around and lodged in the back. The Gales then started toward the Postoffice; Thompson turned to Henry and beat him over the head with the butt of his pistol clenched in his hand. While doing this, Thomas came behind him and beat him over the head. As he turned to Thomas, Henry drew a four shooter and shot Thompson in the back of the head, to the right and above the ear, Thompson turned and received another ball in his left shoulder; at this time Thompson again turned, and as he did so, Henry placed his pistol against the back of his neck and fired, the ball entering near the angle of the jaw, on the left side, and passed into his mouth, immediately filling his mouth and throat with blood. Thompson made an ineffectual attempt to speak, and the Gales left and went to the drug store of Dr. Hamilton. Thompson was taken to his house and the bullets all extracted. His physicians, Drs. Hoover, Hamilton, and Boughton, think his wounds, though severe, are not dangerous. Henry Gale is not seriously injured, and Thomas is likely to recover.

The Democratic Candidate for Police Judge.

PORTLAND, June 18, 1871.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR—That the public may more fully understand the character of the man whom the Democratic party has nominated for the responsible position of Police Judge, I request you to publish the following statement of facts. During the year 1869 and the early part of 1870, A. M. Snyder was acting as a Government Claim Agent in this city, and during that time the infant children of J. H. Holbrook, a private soldier in Company D, 22d Regiment Iowa Volunteers, who fell in actual service during the rebellion, by their guardian Geo. Humphries, Esq., of Albany, Oregon, applied to Mr. Snyder and employed him as such agent to make out and cause to be executed the papers necessary to establish a claim for a pension then due them from the Government, the fees for which services are fixed by the laws of the United States at ten dollars. When Mr. Snyder had obtained the pension papers for these children he refused to give them up unless the guardian would pay him one hundred dollars, ten times the fee allowed by law for obtaining such papers. And to show what Hon. Henry Warren, Pension Agent at Oregon City, whose uprightness and integrity no man will dispute, thought of this transaction, I ask you to publish the following letters:

PORTLAND, O., April 25, 1870.

HENRY WARREN, Esq., Oregon City, O.—Dear Sir: Be pleased to forward me blank papers to enable me to draw pension money on the papers of Wm. H. H. Jackins, private Second Batt'y, Minn. Mention the amount due to March 4, 1870. Yours, most respectfully etc.

ALBERT M. SNYDER.

PENSION AGENCY, OREGON CITY, OGN.,
April 26th, 1870.

ALBERT M. SNYDER, Esq., Claim Agent, Portland, Oregon—Sir: Yours of yesterday is now at hand. In reply will state that, the illegal and exorbitant charges made by you in the case of Humphrey, guardian of minor heirs of J. H. Holbrook, deceased, forbids that I should receive any more pension matters from you until I am so instructed from the Commissioner of Pensions, to whom I have reported that case.

Respectfully, etc.,
HENRY WARREN, Pension Agent.

These facts are submitted without comment, it being apparent to every one that they need none.

VINDEX.

LAKE YELLOWSTONE.—Lake Yellowstone is a lonely but lovely inland sea, everywhere surrounded with "forests primeval," and nestled in the bosom of the Rocky mountains. Some trappers have insisted that the waters ran both to the Atlantic and Pacific, but such is not the case. The summit of the main chain, however, approaches within half a mile of its south shore, and in places the divide is very little above the lake. Its shape resembles the broad hand of an honest German who has had the forefinger and the two adjoining shot off at the second joint while fighting for glory and Emperor William. The palm of the hand represents the main body, or north part, of the lake. The fingers and thumb, spread to their utmost extent—the thumb and little finger being much the longest represent inlets indenting the south shore, and stretching inland as if to wash away the Rocky mountain. Between these inlets project high rocky promontories covered with dense timber. The largest stream flows into the lake at its upper end, or the extreme south-east corner. This stream is really the Yellowstone river, which for a distance of thirty miles has an average width of over fifteen miles. This enlargement constitutes the lake, which, after being augmented by several smaller streams, narrows down to the width of an eighth of a mile, and flows northward toward the great falls.—The Overland Monthly.

The State Temperance Convention at Salem was composed of one hundred and thirty-six delegates, representing lodges of Good Templars, various temperance organizations, churches and Sunday schools, from nearly every county of the State west of the Cascade mountains.

Rosa Madiai, who, with her husband, Francesco Madiai, were thrown into prison for reading the Scriptures in Florence twenty years ago, died in that city on the 28th of March last, at the age of 75.

SUDDEN CHANGES OF WEATHER are productive of Throat Diseases, Coughs, Colds, &c. There is no more effectual relief in these diseases to be found, than in the timely use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." They possess real merit, and have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, having received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.

Look at the price of Clothing at the store of Kohn & Fishel. Examine the superior quality of their Goods and you will be convinced they are worthy of your patronage. They will sell you a splendid Dress Suit, black or blue, for $25. An A 1 Cass. Business suit for $17 50. First class Blue or Black Beaver Suit for $25, and some cheaper Summer Goods, such as Cheviot, Tweed, White Marseilles Pique and Linen Suits at extreme low prices. Their stock of Furnishing Goods, White Shirts, Socks, &c., is the best in the city and at extreme low prices. Best Star White Shirt at $2 00.

A CARD.

Having called upon the Editor of THE OREGONIAN brimfull of anger and demanded the name of the author of the Card concerning myself and others, published in DAILY OREGONIAN of the 17th inst., I learned that his name was John J. Garwood.

There was something so superlatively ludicrous in the thought that John (for everybody knows John) would attempt to rush into print on public affairs that the only thing that has worried me since was, to know how it ever happened to get in.

KINKEAD'S SAGE BRUSH HAIR TONIC AND CURE FOR BALDNESS

The Best Tonic Dressing for the Hair Ever Offered to the Public.

L. M. KINKEAD, Discoverer,
ELKO, NEV.

The Virtues of California and Nevada Sage Brush.

A RANGE WHERE SAGE BRUSH GROWS ABUNdant, is the first thing sought after by persons engaged in Stock raising, on account of its fattening properties. Meat, fattened upon it, possesses a finer flavor, and retains more of the natural juices, than that fed upon the grasses of the country. A chemical analysis of Sage shows it to contain about eighty-five per cent of nutritious matter, such as go to make fat, etc. But it is not alone in regard to its great virtues as food for stock that we propose to speak; but in these days of humbuggery, Quack Medicines, etc., any article that will supplant the many nostrums that are of no earthly use, by giving the needy a cheap, safe and certain article for the same purpose, is at least a saving to the community in that direction. We allude to its HAIR RESTORING qualities. For this purpose alone it so far surpasses the preparations usually found in Drug Stores, as to make them utterly valueless compared with the really restorative qualities it possesses; and will accomplish more in restoring bald heads, fastening falling hair, renovating and giving healthy action to the scalp, than a whole store of the usual remedies advertised for that purpose. Hundreds now in Nevada can testify to this fact, and a trial will convince any doubting that what we say of it in this respect will be borne out by results, if he will give it a fair trial. The man who first brings the Sage Brush before the public as a Hair Restorative will not only drive every other preparation for that purpose out of the market, but will secure for himself a colossal fortune.—Elko Independent, Jan. 28th, 1871.

MILLS SEMINARY.

REV. C. T. MILLS AND WIFE, FOR the past six years Principals of the Young Ladies Seminary at Benicia, are happy to announce to their patrons and friends, that the next term of their well known Institution, will open

Wednesday, August 2, 1871,

In their New, Commodious and Beautiful Building, just completed at SEMINARY PARK, BROOKLYN.

As most of the able and experienced corps of Teachers, with valuable accessions, as well as the fine classes of pupils now pursuing their studies remove with them, the School remains essentially unchanged with greatly increased facilities for physical comfort and intellectual culture without additional expense. Mr and Mrs. Mills believe they can accomplish much more for their pupils in the future than they have been able to do in the past, and that this Institution offers unrivalled advantages for a thorough and finished education.

All communications relating to admission and all letters of inquiry should be addressed to

THE FLOOD.—We are unable to say yet that the great waters have begun to assuage. On the contrary the swelling tide continues to swell, and [illegible] about twice as well as they did [illegible] three days ago. Up to 8 o'clock last [illegible] the rise since 7 o'clock A M was nearly [illegible] and during Saturday night it was [illegible] three inches, making in twenty four hours [illegible] inches. This is not quite so rapid as was the [illegible] about the middle of the week, but it is fear[illegible] steady and we now have much less margin [illegible] than we then had. Water is run[illegible] the gutters on both sides of Front [illegible] in front of the Cosmopolitan hotel, [illegible] several places between that point and [illegible], where it flows entirely across the street [illegible] part of the plank roadway below E street has [illegible] floated out of place. A rise of one foot [illegible] cover the Nicolson pavement most of the way [illegible] Stark street northward. The J street bridge [illegible] East Portland is all afloat, having raised about [illegible] inches where not held down by the [illegible] resting on it. The bridge is, however, [illegible] by both foot passengers and teams, as it [illegible] very buoyant. Squire Trainor's hotel floor is [illegible]. The flood now exceeds in height [illegible] 1862, and hereafter that me[illegible] flood will not have very much to [illegible]

[illegible] section, we have the following note [illegible] river W. T., June 16th: "More [illegible] now running down Lewis river from [illegible] in the Cascade mountains than ever [illegible] to the oldest settler, at this season. This coupled with the backwater [illegible] makes Lewis river uncommonly [illegible] rising at the rate of one foot in [illegible] hour. The bottom is all covered. It is now—1 o'clock P M—within [illegible] Marsh & Wood's store floor, and [illegible] with sets to move their goods if [illegible] on the floor. Crops on the bottom [illegible] and everybody has got the blues." [illegible] Sauvies Island is to the effect [illegible] have been for two or three days [illegible] families and stock from the island [illegible] all overflowed and the loss is [illegible] very great.

[illegible] INTELLIGENCE.—The San Francisco [illegible] learns that the Ilumans, from Liverpool [illegible] port, which was reported lost some [illegible] foundered off Papama. The crew was [illegible] taken to Falkland Islands. The [illegible] learns that the Edward James sailed [illegible] on the 2d May for Portland with [illegible] 1 000 piculs Rice, 100 [illegible], 200 pkgs Tea and 1,500 pkgs un[illegible]dise.

[illegible] Lighthouse steamer Shubrick arrived [illegible] Friday to anchor iron buoys in the [illegible] river, instead of the spar buoys [illegible] use.

[illegible] is an extract from a letter re[illegible] Mr. C. B. Phelps, from Capt. Noyes, of [illegible], dated Hong Kong, May 8th: "I [illegible] my voyage to Saigon, and on my re[illegible] Hong Kong I found the Ed James still [illegible] on the 2d ult, and has had a [illegible] since she left. I have finished dis[illegible] and have made a good voyage, though [illegible] owing to adverse winds, calms, etc., [illegible] for Portland. I commenced load[illegible] last Thursday, and hope to be [illegible] to sail by the 10th of June." Capt. Noyes [illegible] that the bark Goodell, Capt Crockett, [illegible] Hong Kong, May 2d, for Portland.

[illegible] NEWS.—The Grand Chapter of R A [illegible] held its annual session at Salem on [illegible] day elected the following officers [illegible] year: J. R. Bayley, G. H P, [illegible] G H P, J D Lee, G King, [illegible] G Scribe, B F. Goodwin, G [illegible]; R P Earhart, G Secretary, Rev I [illegible] G Chaplain, J. P. Booth, G C of [illegible] P S, A. G. Walling, G. R [illegible] Van Dusen, G M 3d V., T. H. Cann, [illegible] F M Shurtleff, G M 1st V; A P [illegible] Sentinel. These officers were installed [illegible] the 17th.

[illegible] Lodge A. F. and A. M. will meet at [illegible] Tuesday evening, the 20th, Albert [illegible] of Perfection, R and A S Rite, will [illegible] at Salem. A special train will be [illegible] day from this city to convey Masons [illegible] wish to witness the ceremony. The [illegible] leave at four P.M. and return on [illegible] morning. Rates of fare to Masons [illegible] wives will be half the usual fare.

[illegible] COMMITTEES.—At the Republican [illegible] on Saturday evening, the following [illegible] Ward Committees were appointed. [illegible] Committee (for the city)—W. W. Spaulding [illegible] and James Lotan. First Ward—[illegible] H Wakefield, C. Bills, W W [illegible]; Second Ward—Josiah Failing, O B [illegible], C. W Parrish. Third Ward—A G [illegible], A J Marshall, James Lotan. The City Convention appointed the following [illegible]mittee: H F Block of the First [illegible], [illegible] Semple of Second Ward, and G [illegible] Third Ward.

[illegible] OF THE REPUBLIC.—At a regular [illegible] Post No 1, Grand Army of the [illegible] [illegible]day evening, the following officers [illegible] to serve the ensuing term, commencing: E. W Ryan, Commander, J. H [illegible] Commander, J. B Reynolds, J V [illegible], C P Crandall, Adjutant, Joseph [illegible] Quartermaster, J. REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

On Saturday the Grand Jury of the Circuit Court submitted the following report, and having no further business before them, they were discharged:

To the Honorable Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah

We, the undersigned, members of the Grand Jury for the current term, would respectfully report as follows:

We have had under consideration twenty five cases and have returned fifteen true bills.

We would further report that we have visited the County Jail and County Poor House. We would state that the County Jail is well kept and the prisoners have proper care. We would represent that the Jail is not a proper place to confine prisoners. The Jail should, in our opinion, be above ground, and in a separate building from the Court-house, and we have serious doubts as to whether it is in its present condition adapted either to the safe keeping or the health of those there confined. We find the County Poor house to be kept in good condition, and that the inmates have proper care and attention, but that the buildings themselves are not either good or as comfortable as they should be.

There appearing no further business that demands our attention, we would respectfully ask to be discharged.

REPUBLICAN MUNICIPAL CONVENTION

The city Republican Convention met at the County Court room on Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock. L H Wakefield was chosen President, and O B Gibson Secretary.

The order of business was called and Philip Wasserman was nominated for Mayor by acclamation.

For Police Judge, O. N Denny was nominated, receiving 17 votes to 3 for D C. Lewis.

E D Backenstos was nominated for Treasurer by acclamation.

John M Breck having received a majority of the votes of the Convention as nominee for Assessor, was declared duly nominated.

The following Ward Committees were chosen:

FIRST WARD
L H Wakefield, C Bills, W. W. Spaulding

SECOND WARD.
Josiah Failing, O B Gibson, C. W Parrish

THIRD WARD
A. G Walling, A. J. Marshall, James Lotan.

L. H Wakefield was appointed Chairman of the City Committee.

On motion the Convention adjourned.

O B GIBSON, Secretary

SUGGESTION TO THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, June 16, 1871

EDITOR OREGONIAN.—As the National Holiday is close at hand and no public demonstration announced, would it not be worth the while of the Fire Department to make a display on their own account? I have never seen the "boys" turn out in full force equipped with their machines, and I know there are many others desirous of seeing the Firemen of the city on parade. The Mexican Veterans propose celebrating the day, and a joint arrangement might be effected by which all could form in one grand procession. It is not too late. Let us hear from the Fire Department.

Yours, etc., "W"

Valuable Hints.

A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of Intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters removes all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic or an antibilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristics that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.

A HOUSEHOLD BLESSING.

One that no family should be without. Very warming, very penetrating, very strengthening, very effective. A never failing remedy for Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Pleurisy, Sore Throat, Colic, Cramps, Cholera Morbus, Swellings, Stiff Joints, Sprains, Bruises, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Pain in the Breast, Lame Back and all Lameness and Pain. Such is PRATT'S ABOLITION OIL. Price, large, $1 00; small, 50 cents. For sale by all druggists. Ask for PRATT'S ABOLITION OIL and take no substitute.

PRATT'S NEW LIFE

The famous Vegetable Blood Purifier and Liver Invigorator, thoroughly purifies the Blood, speedily cures Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Heals old sores and ulcers and eradicates from the system all humors and disorders arising from impure blood. It stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the whole system, operates mildly on the bowels, allaying all internal inflammation and is the best Purifying, Regulating and Invigorating Remedy in the world. Price, $1 00. For sale by all druggists.

Stock Books Open

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN APPOINTED by the incorporators of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Company to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, does hereby declare such books now open for subscription at his office in this city.

This is done now because it was believed that the citizens of Oregon and especially of Portland and those along the line of the proposed road would desire to take sufficient stock at least to be an endorsement of the enterprise and enable them to exert an influence in its management.

A certain proportion of the Directors are required to be residents of the State who must first become stockholders before Directors. With the invitation to subscribe thereto is cordial. I will visit Eastern Oregon and Idaho during the month of July to give the citizens there an opportunity of engaging with us in the good cause.

TERRIBLE SHAKE IN CHINA

OVER TWO THOUSAND LIVES LOST—OVER 22 000 SQUARE MILES OF COUNTRY DEVASTATED—TEMPLES GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS AND DWELLINGS DESTROYED

WASHINGTON June 4—Our Minister in China, Governor Low, has forwarded to the Secretary of State the following translation of a report of a terrible earthquake, from the Chinese Governor General of the province in which it occurred

BRIEF ACCOUNT OF THE EARTHQUAKE AT BATHANG IN SZCHUEN

I have ascertained that Bathang lies on a very elevated spot beyond the borders of the province, about 260 miles west of Li Tang and more than thirty post stations from the district town of Ta tsien, on the high road to Thibet About 11 o clock A. M on the 11th of April, 1871 the earth trembled so violently that the Government offices temples granaries, stone and store-houses and fortifications with all the common dwellings and the temple of Ting lin were at once overthrown and ruined the only exception was the hall in the temple grounds called Tachao which stood unharmed in its isolation A few of the troops and people escaped, but most of the inmates were

CRUSHED AND KILLED UNDER THE FALLING TIMBER AND STONE

Flames also suddenly burst out in four places which strong winds drove about until the heavens were darkened with smoke and their [illegible] was mingled with the lamentations of the distressed people On the 16th the flames [illegible] beaten down, but the rumbling noises [illegible] still heard under ground like distant [illegible] and the earth rocked and rolled like [illegible] in a storm at the mercy of the waves [illegible] multiplied miseries of the afflicted inhabitants were increased by a thousand fold [illegible] in about ten days matters began to grow [illegible] et and the motion to cease The Grain collector at Bathang says that for several [illegible] s before the earthquake the water had [illegible] lowed the dyke, but after it the earth [illegible] in many places, and

[illegible] FETID WATER SPURTED OUT

[illegible] manner If one poked the earth [illegible] instantly followed just as is the [illegible] salt wells and fire wells in the [illegible] the province, and this ex[illegible] happened that fire followed the [illegible] in Bathang As nearly as is as[illegible] there were destroyed two large [illegible] the offices of the Collector of Grain [illegible] local magistrate and the Colonel, the [illegible] temple and nearly 700 fathoms of [illegible] and it, and 351 rooms in all inside [illegible] er temples, numbering 221 rooms, [illegible] 543 rooms and houses of the com[illegible] people The number of people, soldiers [illegible]

KILLED BY THE CRASH

[illegible] among whom were the local magistrate and his second in office The earthquake [illegible] from Bathang east to Pang [illegible] west to Nan tun, on the south to [illegible] and on the north to the salt [illegible] a circuit of over 400 miles [illegible] simultaneously over the whole of [illegible] some places steep hills split [illegible] pits, in others hills on [illegible] precipitous cliffs, and the [illegible] were rendered impassable [illegible] The people were beggared [illegible] like autumn leaves and this [illegible] people of Bathang and vicinity was [illegible] of the most distressing and destructive [illegible] has ever happened in this [illegible] The Governor General twice memorialized the Emperor respecting it, who granted aid [illegible] where the misery reopen the roads between the post houses and rebuild or [illegible] pair the offices and dwellings as they were [illegible] Many are now resuming their occu[illegible] and the roads are everywhere passable

Southern Political Sentiment

JEFF DAVIS COMMENDED

[From the Memphis Appeal]

The South has suffered enough without adding the loss of honor Jefferson Davis is not a traitor and the [illegible] silence of him is to admit that our [illegible] line of noble martyrs with the pious and heroic Jackson at their head were traitors all Let it not be required [illegible] brand of infamy upon the grave of the greatest Christian soldier the [illegible] produced, or to repudiate the [illegible] of our cause by denying [illegible] negro We have changed [illegible] have declared Slavery abolished we have annulled the ordinance of secession [illegible] submitted to negro rule, we have been [illegible] bbed by carpet-baggers, we have lived [illegible] persecutions and despotism and we [illegible] done every thing that was [illegible] to appease the wrath of fanaticism and to give power and plunder to thieves and [illegible] there is one thing we cannot do, [illegible] despot require the Southern people [illegible] spit upon Jefferson Davis to prove their loyalty and the apostates in search of spoils would muzzle him like a dog upon the streets [illegible] the Southern people feel that he is no guiltier than themselves, and is entitled to all the privileges they enjoy If Jefferson Davis would speak more, and the little editors anx[illegible] him would cease their con[illegible] rodomontade, the public interest [illegible] promoted

LOVED AND ADMIRED

[From the Chattanooga Times]

[illegible] cannot allow ourselves to [illegible] any one who is unable to con[illegible] the slightest degree the feeling [illegible] which fills the souls of those [illegible] for the right, and have been [illegible] what they conscientiously [illegible] believe to be the wrong [illegible] still has the love and admiration [illegible] the confidence of every true [illegible]

[illegible] DEPARTURE " REPUDIATED

[From the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel May 28]

The [illegible] people will hardly swallow Mr Vallandigham s resolutions, so far as they refer to the so-called constitutional amendments Civil Rights bill, and the many other [illegible] acts and measures which are now [illegible] orated into the laws of the land Our [illegible] cannot give their consent to any platform [illegible] cepts arbitrary and unconstitutional [illegible] part and parcel of the organic law [illegible] though they may be powerless to [illegible] themselves cannot give their assent [illegible] measure which assumes that Congress [illegible] the President with his army and navy has [illegible] to invade the State, overthrow the [illegible] ernment and arrest and imprison its citizens [illegible] Mr Vallandigham means to accept [illegible] amendments which confer the arbitrary [illegible] here referred to we cannot accept that [illegible] his platform which marks such an [illegible] ordinary departure from the time hon[illegible] principles of Democracy And unless [illegible] understand aright the views of our [illegible] Georgia Democracy cannot accept Mr Vallandigham s platform

PRUDENCE RECOMMENDED

[From the New Orleans Bulletin]

[illegible] Davis knows the hearts of the people [illegible] they know his It is not always wise [illegible] to tell the world what we think or what [illegible] His silence would be more eloquent [illegible] words hereafter It behooves the South [illegible] to exercise all of her self control, discretion and temperance to insure a peaceful [illegible] fair participation in the next general [illegible] tion Thinking men see and realize this

A German writer relates some notable fact touching the literary productiveness of modern times more especially in Germany, from [illegible] we copy as follows It is four hundred [illegible] since printing was invented, yet the first [illegible] centuries of the art together produced [illegible] printed matter than one year now The [illegible] press has gone to the ends of the [illegible] so that there are now twenty nine [illegible] journals published regularly in South Africa [illegible] fifty in Australia twelve in Van Diemen s Land, and six in Sandwich Islands In [illegible] production of new books Germany takes [illegible] of all nations with reference to quan[illegible] doubtless to quality as well In the [illegible] of new books France is second, England [illegible] and the United States fourth, [illegible] range to say in the number of news[illegible] circulated they rank in directly the [illegible] order But, reckoning by the number [illegible] copies of books printed, instead of the [illegible] of new works Germany ranks far below [illegible] country The most popular books [illegible] published there scarcely reach a circulation of twenty five thousand copies, while here many a successful novel has been sold by hundreds of thousands.

POLITICAL NOTES

The New York Standard says It will be a pretty hard job to smother the Southern Democratic feeling, now that it has been fanned by the chief traitor of all

The St Joseph (Mo) Herald says The Democrats are between Scylla and Charybdis, in a current which will be dangerous in any event The political outlook, therefore, for the Democracy is not at all promising

Democratic prospects have frequently been blighted by too ample an exposition of the principles of the party Says an Ohio Democratic paper of the Vallandigham creed Four yards of platform is too much to stand on Boil it down, make it four inches and then we are for it

Pete Schwab, one of the Judges of Election in the second ward of Hamilton, Ohio has been held to bail in $1 000 to appear before the Sixth District Court of the United States, on a charge of fraudulently introducing and counting over fifty votes for Campbell at the election last fall Campbell s majority over Schenck, it will be remembered, was only fifty two in a poll of 20 625

It seems that one third of the Ohio Democratic Convention fought the new departure resolutions earnestly, and it seemed at one time as though the convention would break up in a row Several candidates refused to run on the platform and it is understood that General McCook himself is opposed to it The wisest old Democrats are despondent and think the party has no show in the ensuing election

A few years ago W M Tweed, of New York city, was a bankrupt chair maker He worked himself into a leading position in the Tammany ring and is now worth twenty million dollars all of which he made by holding public office His fellow thieves all have immense fortunes Tweed a few days ago expended half a million on his daughter s wedding—money which came out of the tax payers and laborers of New York

The Indianapolis Journal testifies to the wonderful usefulness of Vallandigham to the Republican party He gave the Republicans the grandest victory they ever won in Ohio He prepared such a platform for McClellan, at Chicago, as to make the re election of Lincoln a certainty He caused the nomination of Seymour, by a dramatic performance overdone in Tammany Hall And now, the Journal is of opinion he has provided for the re-election of Gen Grant

The New York World says Jefferson Davis has nothing to tie to but " the lost cause " and being such an utter political wreck that he can neither be repaired nor injured, he is welcome to fling himself into the surf to be dashed against the rocks It concerns nobody but himself that his broken timbers are still further shivered A cause must be desperate indeed which can find no better advocate than Jefferson Davis " Very true but the Democratic cause is " desperate," and Davis represents it

The Ohio State Journal prints a cartoon of the Democratic Sick Man and Dr Vallandigham " which is full of significance The floor and table of a most uninviting sick chamber are covered with vials and other medical appurtenances, labeled " General Orders No II " " No 38 " " XVth Amendment," etc The " Democracy " represented as much out at the elbow and looking very sick indeed, draws back in agony as the Doctor proffers a small negro, with the remark " Swallow this now, there s a good fellow and you'll feel better "

The Idea that Paris was France

This was the idea on which the Communists staked all and lost all An Eastern journal makes these comments upon it

Thousands of these people have perished in the belief that the destruction of Paris is the destruction of France It is the old blunder of putting the part for the whole These masses had been miseducated to believe that Paris is the ultimate of France It is an error shared by the dwellers in all great centers of trade and civilization It is slowly developing in some of the great trade centers of this republic, and particularly noticeable in the city of New York That city controls the legislation of the entire State Its demands increase with every year of time, and should the day come when the out lying districts shall say—" thus far and no farther!" —it is not unreasonable to suppose that the horrors which rule in Paris at this hour, are liable to reproduction in the boasted Metropolis of the continent

The struggle in a Republic must be for homogeneity else disorder is invited The interests of the people, while varied and apparently conflicting are unity Progress is what all intelligent men and women desire above all things And progress means harmonious development When a city can dictate to the commonwealth of which it is but an integral part the healthy balance of Republicanism is lost and danger threatens on every hand Look at Paris but yesterday as it were, the marvel of civilization to day a smoking ruin And this, because its masters in an evil hour taught that a part included the whole Let us look on and be taught
